

This map shows the proposed "divided plaza" that the National Capital Planning Commission recommends for the intersection of widened Virginia Avenue and New Hampshire Avenue in Foggy Bottom. The West Leg of the Inner Loop will be tunneled under this plaza. To its north a proposed new building would span the freeway. To the south there is to be an overlook promenade. A foot path from this promenade would lead to the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

The Washington Post