In Washington, Italy's mammoth Societa Generale Immobiliare soon will start construction of a $60-million complex of apartments (below), town houses, a luxury motor inn, and office buildings. Project was first suggested to SGI Pres. Aldo Samaritani (left) by Nicholas Salgo (right). Salgo emigrated here from Hungary in 1948, spent seven years under William Zeckendorf, then struck out on his own as a financial planner.
