

...to the... project, assigned... firm of Corning, Moore, Elmore &... Located in Foggy Bottom overlooking the Potomac River, Watergate is adjacent to the proposed Cultural Center in a 10-acre triangular tract bounded by Rock Creek parkway, Virginia avenue, New Hampshire avenue and F street N.W.

And topping it all, many of the apartments will feature wood-burning fireplaces and private roof terraces.
