Sea-Going Flag Raiser at the Watergate

William McAinsh Jr., property manager for Riverview Realty Co., uses hip boots to wade into the pool and raise the flags in front of the Watergate Development on Virginia ave. Since the flagpoles are installed in the 30-by-30-foot pool, it is necessary to wade out to the poles every time the flags are raised or lowered. Riverview Realty is sales agency for Watergate development. Story on Page B2.
